MANY ASSESSORS RAISE FIGURES

Most Cities of State Have Increased Assessment Valuation as Much or More Than Kingston—Middleton Doubled

Kingston is not the only city to increase the assessment valuations of its real property. Assessor Morris Block, after spending several months carefully reviewing the real estate in the city, raised the total city assessment from $15,000,000 to $18,000,000. This raise, however appears small and modest, compared with some of the increased assessments in other cities of the state. The increase in Kingston, it is figured, will not take up the increase in the structural value of buildings due to present high prices of construction. It is claimed that there has been a national average increase in value of all buildings in the city which can be used to advantage, at least twenty-five per cent.

The assessments in Middletown have been doubled. Yonkers has increased its valuation $50,000,000. Utica has an increase from $54,000,000 to $91,000,000. New York city has added $200,000,000. Newburgh has made a large increase. Amsterdam, Auburn, Binghamton, Elmira, Geneva, Johnstown, Oswego, Rome, Troy, Utica, Watervliet, Watertown and other cities have increased their assessed valuations as much or more proportionately than Kingston.

The reason for this increase is the large increase in the cost of municipal government in everything—wages, materials, etc.—and in everything else. The tax rates of many cities of the state have passed the forty-cent mark. Another reason is that one-half of the state income tax is distributed to the cities and towns according to their assessed valuation and any city assessed at fifty per cent only gets one-half of the income tax to which it is entitled.

SERVICES OF RED CROSS NURSE

There may be those in both the city and the county outside the city who do not know that the Ulster County Chapter of the American Red Cross is supporting a visiting nurse who is available for bed-side nursing on the request of physicians in the entire county. Where there are those in need of a nurse who are present unable to pay for the services of such a nurse, the Red Cross nurse will go quite free of charge. Of course, where people are fully able to pay for nursing services but, because of the scarcity of nurses cannot secure such services, such persons would undoubtedly prefer to pay the nurse some fee. It should be understood that this Red Cross nurse not available for days or weeks at a case, but for a few hours a time each day, or for several consecutive days if that is desirable. This way making it possible to treat the greater number of people. It is the desire of the local nursing committee of the Red Cross, Dr. Mark O'Meara, chairman, to have a nurse give just as much assistance to the people of the county as possible, especially at this time, when it is so difficult to secure nurses.

In Ellenville the Red Cross branch is about to inaugurate, in cooperation with the public health committee and the board of Education, a Red Cross nurse.

◆ Aboard U. S. S. Goldborough, of Sandy Hook, N. J., July 24—(Via Wireless)—After a delay of half an hour Shamrock IV and Resolute got away at 11.30 o'clock today in the deciding race of their series for America's cup.

Shamrock was heading by nearly a minute when she swept across the starting line.

Both yachts crossed the line under ballooners and Shamrock<sup>4</sup> at once headed far off the course in a luffing match to the westward.

At 11 o'clock—the scheduled hour for starting—only a mild breeze was blowing and the committee decided to wait until later in the day to send the yachts away. The breeze freshened a little and the signal to start the race was hoisted.

The course of today's race runs south by west, half west, fifteen miles to a mark, five miles off the New Jersey coast at Asbury Park, and return to Ambrose lightship. This means a run down before the wind and a beat home.

The official starting time of the yachts follows:
Shamrock 11:30:29.
Resolute 11:31:25.
At 11:45 the two yachts were moving very slowly with Shamrock still out ahead but without head-pulling any further away from Resolute. The yachts were nearly two miles westward of the course. Shamrock began to pull away from Resolute at 11:55 and increased her lead to a quarter of a mile. Both yachts were still going very slowly.

The challenger continued to increase her lead over Resolute slowly. The yachts had sailed five miles at 12:40 but less than two miles in Both jibbed over to starboard and headed off shore for the mark. At 12.50 Resolute slipped by Shamrock. At 12:55 p. m. Resolute was leading the British craft by 700 yards and was 100 yards from the mark.

At 1:10 p. m. both yachts were three miles southeast of Highlands, standing a little west of south on a port tack. They just had steering way, and were over ten miles to the leeward of the mark.

CUNNINGHAM TO NAME HOWARD

Half of Uter County Delegation Said To Be For Farmer-Jurist As Republicans Gather For Local Convention.

The Republican unofficial State Convention will be held at Saratoga Springs tomorrow for the purpose of recommending party candidates for nomination for United States senator and state offices to be voted for at the September primaries. At a recent meeting of the members of the Uter county Central Committee the following were selected as delegates and alternates to attend the convention.

Delegates—Philip Eiting, Kingston; Martin Cantine, Saugerties; Dr. Mary Gage-Day, Kingston; Senator Charles W. Walton, Kingston; Philip Schantz, Highland; Assemblyman Simon B. Van Wageningen, Esopus; Mrs. Jane D. Young, Nanaucho; Hon. C. Meach Woolsey, Milton; Hon. Abram P. Levesque, New Paltz; Supervisor John H. Sage, West Hurley; Hon. Frederick Stephan, Jr., Kingston; County Attorney John W. Eckert, Kingston; Supervisor James H. Heaton, Cliftondale.

Alternates—Hon. Andrew J. Cook, Kingston; John A. Snyder, Saugerties; Miss Grace Van B. Roberts, Highland; Mrs. Lanette E. DuBois, New Paltz; Mrs. Fannie Elwyn Woodstock, William Reynolds Woodstock; W. Kelly Shook, Wawarsing; Hon. Joel Brink, Ulster; Fred Schloff, Kingston; William D. Brainer, Jr., Kingston; William R. Harrison, Kingston; George Garrison, Rochester; Henry L. Winchell, Marlborough.

The following was printed in the Albany Knickerbocker-Press on Sunday:

"Judge William D. Cunningham of the state court of claims will present the name of Supreme Court Justice Wesley O. Howard of Troy to the unofficial convention of the Republican party at Saratoga Springs, Tuesday, for endorsement as the party's candidate for governor. Judge Cunningham is a delegate from Uter county and most of that county's delegation has pledged itself to the candidacy of the 'farmer jurist,' as Judge Howard is known throughout the Capitol District." Also the following:

"Reports received in Troy yesterday showed that Howard sentiment is increasing rapidly in New York and the Bronx and in Erie county. It is expected that at least one-half of the Uter delegation will be for Judge Howard on account of the fact that Judge Cunningham will make the nominating speech."

The New York Evening Telegram in its Sunday issue says:

"A candidacy that is worrying the Old Guard and its new allies is that of Justice Wesley O. Howard of Troy, known as the 'farmer jurist.' Cornelius V. Collins, leader of the Reuselaar county Republican organization, makes no claim regarding the strength of his candidate, but says he will be formidable and must be considered. 'There is a demand for him from the farmers and other sources that must be considered,' said Mr. Collins. However, the Old Guard received a jolt today when it was learned that Judge Howard's name would be presented to the convention by Judge William D. Cunningham, of the court of claims. Judge Cunningham also comes from Uter county which is controlled by Philip Eiting, one of Mr. Barnes's closest lieutenants."

"The Old Guard had relied on Mr. Barnes getting a solid delegation for Senator Henry M. Sage from Albany, Greene, Delaware and Uter counties. They were to stick until it was decided there was no chance for Senator Sage, when their strength would be thrown to Judge Miller. However, this upset is regarded as significant, and the fact that Judge Cunningham was the choice of many of the leaders for temporary chairman of the convention indicates that when the conference is on for the nominee Judge Howard will have to be reckoned with."

Evidently neither candidate will venture to begin the march toward the White House to the tune of "Comin' Through the Rye."

There are one or two governments manifestly of the opinion that a legislature's duty is to the constitution and people of its state rather than to the interests of any political party.

Little seems to be known of P. P.
Christensen, nominated for president of the third party, except that at one time he served as counsel for the I.
W. W. in Utah. His name indicates foreign extraction and appears to be

MYSTERIES OF THE SEA.

Can a lifebelt be borne by currents across the Atlantic from the Irish to the American coast, then be swept far up a river by tides, and remain intact throughout such a journey requiring five years?
That is the question involved in the discovery in the Delaware river at Philadelphia of a battered lifebelt bearing the inscription, "Lusitania" —the historic name of the great passenger ship which a German torpedo sent to the bottom with tragic loss of life on May 7, 1915.
The question is said to be answered in the affirmative by experts who say that the possibility of so strange an event is confirmed by the scientific observation and record of many precedents.

If then, a Lusitania lifebelt set afloat near Queenstown can appear at the inland port of Philadelphia across the Atlantic more than five years later, the incident is more than a reminder of a brutal atrocity which will haunt the German people for generations to come. It is also a promise that long missing ships may still be heard from. It may still be possible, for example, to clear up the mystery of the United States collier Cyclops which sailed March 4, 1918, from Barbados expecting to reach an American port nine days later. Since that no news of her or of any of the 300 persons on board has been received, careful search having failed to reveal a single bit of identifiable wreckage. Yet the remarkable incident reported above shows that there may be still afloat some article, or some indirect message, which will furnish a clue to the Cyclops' mysterious fate.

THE OLYMPIC GAMES.

The modern Olympic games, after one omission of periodic date owing to world-convulsing war, will be held in Antwerp this year. The Belgians are reported to be doing their best to get ready to welcome the world's athletes and to make adequate arrangements for the coming spirited contests. England, it is stated, will not be well represented this time because her best athletes were lost in the war. This is a better reason for a relatively inferior showing than that assigned for a limited American participation in the games. President Kirby of the American Committee is quoted as saying that the United States will be unable to make the best possible showing at Antwerp because of the lack of popular and financial support in this country.
This is an lamentable as it is surprising.

It is easy to understand a reluctance to contribute on the part of a general public that has long been pursued by economic "drift" both necessary and superfluous. But no vagueness is required in this case and the desired amount ought to be readily made up among lovers of sports alone. Lack of popular interest is less understandable even the ignorant fee of so-called "internationalism" ought to look with a frowning eye upon international sport, particularly the great summer games, of which it has been well said that "they provide about the best of available means of substituting for war a better outlet for the feeling of international rivalry which is a natural unchangeable and commendable characteristic of the human race."

Buffalo, N. Y., July 24, 1930.

To Readers of The Freeman:
No difficulty in crossing the border to another country or return. One fills out his own blank pertaining to license number, power, name of car, etc., and across one goes. The customs inspector makes a casual examination and off you go along a concrete highway like our new Hurley stretch of road. Soon, however, you leave this class of road for dirt and gravel roads, not good.

Visited the Falls again. There is something new to see each time. A changing mass of water plunging over 165 feet of precipitous cliff nearly one mile in width is not to be passed by. There are other water falls but only one Niagara, so named by the Indians and meaning "falling waters." The greatest torrent in the world thunders here and hurls its spray for hundreds of yards around, above and about.

A large iron barge rests securely on the rocks 200 feet above the edge of the Canadian Falls. Two men were rescued at the last moment a year or two ago from what seemed certain death. Fortunately the bottom of the barge was thrust in by the rocks in the current, thus holding the heavy obstacle on the brink of the precipice, an object of curiosity and amusement.

Fort Erie overlooks Buffalo on the opposite shore of Lake Erie. This is a small ruin with monument commemorating heroism in July and August, 1814, when fort was attacked by the advancing American army in the war of 1812. Trenches and mounds appear, showing clearly the method of defense and the spaces are noticeable in the solid stone walls made by the cannon balls of the "Yanks." Here is a place for meditation and play of the imagination!

There are beach resorts on the Canadian side of the lake, small "Coney Islands," patronized by the $60,000 Buffalonians.

Lake Erie white fish are a most palatable dish, away ahead of Seneca Lake trout.

Good old Kingston has nothing to fear from rivalry on this side of the border, but we must adopt central New York methods of construction of homes or we will fall far behind.

Off for Niagara-on-the-Lake, Hamilton and Toronto. Then home by way of Rochester.
Have enjoyed my calls on the postmasters en route. None have as handsome a structure as the post office at Kingston so far as we have gone in the states and Canada, Buffalo P. O. excepted. During last night's terrific storm the tower on this P. O. building was struck and great pieces of cornice fell 300 feet.

BITTEN BY RATTLESNAKE.

Millbrook Man Hovers Between Life
And Death.

George Sanderson, of Millbrook, is in St. Francis Hospital, Newburgh, hovering between life and death as the result of being bitten by a rattlesnake in Millbrook on Thursday evening. Sanderson, who is a young man, was sitting on a wall in Millbrook, when he heard a peculiar whirring sound. Not recognizing it as anything familiar, he looked about and was horrified to find that he was staring at a big rattlesnake which was all coiled ready to strike.

Instinctively, he threw his hand in the air to shield his face and as he did so, the snake struck, burying his fangs under Sanderson's arm.
Remembering all that he had heard of first aid in snake-bite cases, the young man fashioned a hasty tourniquet, and realizing the fatality of a rattlesnake's bite, took his pen knife and bravely cut away the flesh from about the part of his arm which was penetrated by the snake's fangs.

He waited by the roadside until the Millbrook bus came by and he boarded it for Poughkeepsie, going at once to the office of Dr. E. M.
Burns, who found the wound in a terrible condition with the arm swollen horribly. He dressed the wound and then advised that the boy go to St. Francis Hospital, and called a taxicab.

By the time Sanderson reached Dr. Burns's office, four hours had elapsed since the snake had bitten him and he was weak and delirious.
In the taxi, he became unconscious, and was still in that condition when the hospital was reached. Dr. J. E.
Sadler, was at once called in consultation by Dr. Burns, and he performed an operation, cutting away all the infected tissues of the arm.
An effort was made to secure some anti-venom serum, but calls to some neighboring cities were ineffective and none was available nearer than New York. Permanent use of potassium was injected

YOUR taste never tires of Camels!
No matter how liberally you light up, Camels are always refreshing!
That's because they have the quality and because they are made to meet your taste! The longer you smoke Camels the better you like them—they are so unusual, so different from any cigarette you have ever tried!

First of all, Camels are an expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos. Camels blend, backed by quality, gives Camels their remarkable mellow mildness never before attained in a cigarette. Yet, Camels have delightful body that is satisfying to the most exacting smoker!

And, you can mark it down on this spot that you will greatly prefer Camels blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight! You'll find Camels a revelation —no matter how you compare them with any cigarette in the world at any price!

Make a note, too, that Camels leave no unpleasant cigarette aftertaste nor unpleasant cigarette odor.

Just as soon as you really know Camels and their quality you will realize why we do not offer coupons or premiums. Camels certainly tell you their own story in a mighty convincing way!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes; or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.

For Constipation

To Keep Your Health—

you must regard Nature's laws; and one of the first of her laws is "Avoid Constipation".
Nujol works on an entirely new principle. Without forcing or irritating, it softens the food waste.
This enables the many tiny muscles in the intestines, contracting and expanding in their normal way, to squeeze the food waste along and out of the system.
It is absolutely harmless and pleasant to take.

DAY LINE GETS NEW VESSEL

Steel Steamer Acquired From Navy Department To Be Called DeWitt Clinton and To Go Into Service on River Next Spring.

E. E. Olcott, President of the Hudson River Day Line, received word yesterday (July 23) that the Navy Department has awarded to the Day Line the "Napatim" ex "Manhattan," built by the Grand Trunk Railway, but not put into service by the Navy Department until 1918.

This fine passenger carrying steel steamer will be known as the "DeWitt Clinton" and will take her place next spring as one of the fleet which for more than 50 years has offered daylight trips on the Hudson River between New York and Albany. Famous in this fleet was the "Mary Powell," known to thousands of New Yorkers and only recently ending her long and honored career. The present fleet comprises the "Washington," "Irving," "Hendrick Hudson," "Robert Fulton," "DeWitt Clinton," and "Albany." Together with the "DeWitt Clinton," this fleet will have a housed passenger carrying capacity of almost 24,000. So great has been the growth of the Day Line business that on recent holidays thousands of people have been disappointed in their effort to buy tickets, and the new boat was purchased in order to better care for the regular and special business of the company.

The "DeWitt Clinton" has a length of 320 feet, 2 inches, and a breadth of 48 feet 1 inch. She was purchased by the government for use during the war and like many others acquired the need for her ceased when the fighting was over and our troops returned home. She has now been bought by the Day Line and will be rebuilt from the main deck up to resemble the "Washington" with numerous plate glass windows and large open decks. It is hoped it will be ready for service when the Day Line season reopens in May, 1921.

In keeping with the policy of the Day Line to commemorate in the names of its boats some of the famous characters of early Hudson history the DeWitt Clinton is to honor the memory of the man who, as senator, mayor, and twice governor of New York, did more perhaps than any other to inaugurate our public school system.

In recognition of this fact, 5,000 students of the DeWitt Clinton High School of New York will be asked to submit for prizes some of the famous sayings of Governor Clinton, and these will be inscribed in suitable panel decorations on the new boat. The contest may even be enlarged to include Columbia University, for Clinton was in a measure responsible for reviving this institution, which in the early days, was known as King's College. During the revolution its students and teachers had been driven out to make room for the sick of the American army. Its president had been chased from his post by a mob who were enraged by his warm support of the British cause. The library, then the most complete on the continent, was broken up and dispersed, and the apparatus and museum destroyed.

The fact that Clinton, a nephew of the governor, and son of a distinguished citizen should be obliged to go to another state for his education, brought the matter to publication. It was decided to open the deserted hall, the college was renamed Columbia and young Clinton was the first student matriculated.

It was here that he first received lectures on the principles and history of canal navigation, which may have been responsible for his work in behalf of the Erie Canal, which he formally opened in 1825 when handsomely decorated barges bearing Clinton and the chief officers of state floated down the canal to New York. Reports of cannon placed four miles apart along the route brought the news to New York. On his arrival, Clinton poured water from Lake Erie into the Atlantic.

Not only does New York owe to Clinton its magnificent inland waterway, but also its educational system, for in 1806 Clinton established the first public school in New York with one teacher and forty-two scholars because he foresaw that "education is the basis of free government," and he was determined that every child should have the benefit of free schooling.

The new boat will bear further testimony to the impress which Clinton has left on the life of New York, which already is evidenced in Fort Clinton, built in 1814, in what is now the north end of Central Park, as a defense in the War of 1812, Clinton Park, in Queens; the DeWitt Clinton High School, in Manhattan; Clinton St. and Clinton Place, Manhattan; and DeWitt Clinton Park, West 51st street, Manhattan.

DADDY'S EVENING FAIRY TALE

LADY BUG'S LECTURE.

"Dear little Lady Bugs, gather around me," said Lady Bug, "for I am going to give a lecture."

Gather Around Ma.

"It will be a free lecture, and pray, Lady Bugs, do not think that on that account it will be poor. Too many folks have the idea that nothing is good that is free. Oh, it's very, very, wrong."

"They don't bother to find out how many nice things are free, and they don't stop to think about them. Take birds and their concerts—quite free. And the woods and lakes and rivers and ponds—practically all of them free. And many free concerts and oh, so many things that if I go on talking about them I will never have time for my lecture."

"So I will begin my lecture if all the Lady Bugs are ready and if the Lady Bug who has charge of this hall (for I must call this place where I am lecturing a hall) will kindly bring me an acorn filled with water I will be much obliged. Lecturers should always have such things by them, and oh yes, a light and a pointer to point to my maps and my pictures. But on second thoughts they won't be necessary for I have no maps and no pictures. Well, then, are we all ready?"

A little Lady Bug came hurrying up with the acorn filled with water and said in a low tone, "If you want any more I'll bring it in to you."

"Thanks," said the Lady Bug, who was about to lecture.

"Now, friends," she began, "Mrs. President, Lady Chairman, I greet you."

There was no Mrs. President and no Lady Chairman, but that didn't make any difference.

"I have something very fine to tell you. Something very fine upon a subject which strikes close to the heart of all of us."

Lady Bug, the lecturer, placed one of her legs in the direction of her heart and looked very fine indeed doing so.

In a moment or two she went on: "I have heard, and it is quite true, that we have all been paid a very great compliment. We have been paid one of the greatest of compliments."

"It has been both expensive and a bit difficult to get to Europe of late—especially has it been too expensive, and I don't believe any of the Lady Bugs have enough money in the Lady

"But we haven't enough money in the bank. Dear me no, not nearly enough."

"However, those of our family who have been chosen to go weren't asked how much money they had at all. They weren't even asked if they had any money."

"They weren't even asked if they would pay for their laundry and their own food."

"They were just invited to go and were told that the work they would do would be enough thanks for the opportunity they were having to travel."

"Yes," said Lady Bug, "many, many, many Lady Bugs have been shipped to France to destroy bad insects which they're having a great time with."

"We can do the work. They had to call on us to do it. Now wasn't that an honor? To think that Lady Bugs, usually not thought so much of, have been shipped quite free of any charge to the Lady Bugs themselves to a foreign country."

"Of course, I'm not sure whether the Lady Bugs can talk French or not, but they can work any way and make the whole Lady Bug world proud of them."

"But I think it would be interesting if we all studied a little French so that we would be able to say how-de-do and good by and pleased-to-meet-you in French. In case we're called upon next. And my lecture is not only free. It is quite, quite true."

"Ah," said all the Lady Bugs when they had finished cheering the speaker, "we will all study a little French and be ready. Ah, what an honor for the Lady Bugs of this land!"

"Gorgeous," said Lady Bug, the lecturer.

Nutmegs.

Nutmegs are kernels of the fruit of a tree cultivated in Sumatra, Java, and the West Indies. In shape and size this fruit resembles a peach.

Cultivated Chestnuts.

Southern Californians are wondering whether the growing of the sweet chestnut is not destined to be one of the coming industries of the state. The appearance of a fine row of chestnut trees on the outskirts of the city of Santa Ana, in Orange county, California, suggested to a recent eastern visitor the fact that the chestnut as a future crop for California may rival before many years the enormous walnut output.

PORT EWE.

Port Ewen, July 26. Miss Anna Bruck of Kingston is spending the week at the home of Mrs. J. F. Dorr on Stout avenue.

By the looks of things there will be no trouble to get girls for Port Ewen's shirt factory as 75 have already been picked lacking 25 of the desired number, new ones are added every day. Carpenters are rushing the work to complete the building so operations can commence September first.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunn and son, Thomas, Jr., of Kenosha, Wis., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dorr, on Stout avenue, have returned home.

Mrs. Daniel Egles and son, Daniel, Jr., of New York City, are guests of Miss Daisy Edsworth on Salem street.

Newburgh shipyard's need for men. A representative of the Newburgh Shipyard, Inc., was in Port Ewen Friday looking for men for the shipyard. House carpenters are needed for the construction of the new steel fabricating shops now under construction. Ship carpenters for the caps and good mechanics in any trade can find steady employment at good wages. The company has under construction two vessels for the U. S. shipping board, two bulk freight steamers for carrying sulphur for the Union Sulphur Company of New York and three large fruit steamers for the Cymel Fruit Company of New Orleans. The new fabricating shops are but a small part of the new construction contemplated for the future which will make this yard one of the most up-to-date in the country.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dunn and daughters, Bessie and Alice, of Kingston, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dorr on Stout avenue.

Rev. and Mrs. G. Franklin Snyder and sons, Roland and Donald, of Tannersville called on friends in Port Ewen on Friday.

Miss Mary F. Conroy of New York City who has been spending her vacation at the home of her mother, Mrs. William Mallia, has returned to the city.

Miss Frances J. Kuhn of New York City and John J. Duffy of Brooklyn were the week end guests of Miss Mary Conroy.

Another urn filled with beautiful flowers of one of Port Ewen citizens was robbed Wednesday evening. This flower thief has a mania for flowers and they will get all the bouquets they are looking for if they keep on stealing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartram Hotelling of Kingston spent Friday evening with friends in Port Ewen.

Warren K. Van Vleet of Jersey City spent the week end with his family on Broadway.

Theodore Knecht and daughter, Florence, of Kingston were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knecht on Stout avenue Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Neal have sold their residence on Broadway and purchased the bungalow of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker on Bayard street.

A great many changes of real estate have been made in Port Ewen and there are several deals about to be closed. We are sorry that some of our good citizens are compelled to leave our beautiful place on account of places being sold and having no other place to go.

The bungalow of D. VanLeuven on Stout avenue has been rented to parties from Newburgh.

Thomas Tucker, Sr., of Albany, spent the week end at his home on Broadway.

Everything is in readiness for the coming week party to be held on Main street Thursday evening, July 26th, under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor and Epworth League societies of Port Ewen. All we need is the cooperation of all the citizens of Port Ewen and the suburbs to make this affair the desired success hoped for.

The proceeds of the Community Cafeteria Supper, announced to $112.00. We are very proud of this hearty cooperation shown by the people of Port Ewen and vicinity. The money has been given the treasurer of the Methodist Episcopal Church and is to be used to repair the church organ. The community affair was a gathering long to be remembered on account of the friendly atmosphere that was prevalent from start to finish and every one put forth every effort to make it such a wonderful success that it was. It was a very nice "throwing" to Merritt Every's estate and the welcome given by Mr. Every and his family will live long in the minds of the people who on a fortunate day are present at this Community Supper.

Footish to Postpone Duty.

Postponing is a confession of unpreparedness. The prepared man does not know just what is going to happen half the time. But he does know how to meet problems when they come up. He has wrestled with them in mind before they happen in experience and he knows therefore how to approach them. Sometimes he is called a crank because he will not become entangled with a host of things not directly associated with his work. But that's only wisdom. He knows the dangers that will come and save his strength to meet them when they do. The other man just hangs about and does something turns up that is a little hard to put it off until tomorrow. That means that if it ever gets done it must be run in with something else.—Gale.

The Performance Figures of THE FRANKLIN SEDAN Have More Than a Face Value

20 miles to the gallon of gasoline 12,500 miles to the set of tires 50% slower yearly depreciation (National Average)

THESE figures speak for themselves. They are the dollars and cents side of Franklin owners' motoring satisfaction.

But the outstanding merit of Franklin performance lies beyond the face value of economy. It is just as positive, but requires a ride in the car. This will be given at any time, suiting your convenience, to prove—

Comfort that rough going does not destroy Control that does not require strength Safety that is not a matter of skill Reliability that is independent of season
Ability to cover the longest distance in a day

COTTEKILL.

Cottekill, July 26.—Sunday, August 1, will be observed as "Go to Sunday School and Church Sunday" by the Cottekill Reformed Sunday school. Each scholar in the Sunday school has promised to bring one or more visitors with them to Sunday school on August 1st, and ask them to remain in the church service which immediately follows the Sunday school.

Sunday school is at two p. m., and church at three p. m., standard time.

Each year this Sunday school sets one Sunday as a special Sunday, or a Rally Day and in the past it has been a great success. Seventy-two people were in attendance last year, and this year it is hoped to have one hundred present on this day. In case you should not be asked by some member of the school, come out anyway, you will be welcome, and get acquainted with our Sunday school service. You will be put in a class that will interest you. There will be some special singing, and the pastor has a special subject for his sermon.

Price, Not Price, Cellulose.
From the very beginning of the Catholic church it has been the custom for those entering the priesthood to renounce marriage. It was not obligatory, and the rule requiring men, who were already married at the time of ordination, to separate from their wives, was not made until the end of the fourth century, when Pope Siricius forbade the clergy to marry, and ordered the separation from their wives of priests already married. This accounts for the fact that St. Peter, the first head of the Catholic church, was a married man.

Wedding Ring Worn on Thumb.
In the reign of George I of England fashion had something to do with the wedding ring. Large wedding rings being favored at that time, it was not unusual to see a woman wearing her wedding ring on her thumb, although it had been placed on the fourth finger during the ceremony. Wedding rings were also worn on the thumb in the middle of the seventeenth century.
